

DELICIOUS SPREAD

GOSBERTON Baptist Church funds were boosted by a total of £112, thanks to a cash-raising fete on Saturday. People popped along to the church where they enjoyed browsing through the items for sale on a variety of stalls.

There were home-baked cakes, groceries and a stall called "work" bearing tea towels and wahsing-up cloths.

Our Gosberton correspondent Miss Phyllis Baxter tells us: "There were a lot of people there. It was a good fete, very successful. There were also a lot of competitions on the chapel lawn, bean bag throwing, skittles and judging the weight of the cake."

Proceeds from the fete, which lasted from three o'clock to 5.15 will go towards restoration work on the chapel.
