

Young raise funds

GOSBERTON villagers turned out in force to support a coffee morning organised by young people from the Methodist Church.

Belinda Taylor, and Lisa and Emma Hearth organised the event, which included stalls and games, in the church hall on Thursday.

The £75 raised will be shared between the junior church, run by Belinda, and the cost of Lisa and Emma attending the MAYC (Methodist Association of Youth Clubs) weekend in London in May.

▲ HELPERS and supporters at the coffee morning held at Gosberton Methodist Church. (L558/32)